INTRODUCTION

The International Executive Council was created to function directly under the authority of the International General Assembly. Since its formation in 1917, it has lived up to its purpose.

First proposed in 1915, the Council was established in 1916 when the Assembly adopted a recommendation from the Committee on Bible Plans of Order:

...that a body of elders be selected, whose duty it shall be to have jurisdiction over all questions of every nature that may properly come before them, their actions and decisions to be ratified by the Assembly in session. This body of elders to be composed of not less than twelve members and never more than seventy... Book of Minutes 12th, p.242

The Council was authorized to carry on the business of the Church of God when no Assembly was in session. Specific among its duties was the preparation of the agenda for the next International General Assembly. Through the years many other duties have been assigned to the Council. The authority assigned to the Council by the International General Assembly distinguishes it from all other boards and committees. Attorney Dennis W. Watkins gives the following summary:

As we know, the International Executive Council is the second highest judicatory/ governing body of the Church of God, subject only to the International General Assembly, and governs the Church of God between International General Assemblies.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Among its many responsibilities, the following are particularly important:

- To distribute the tithes that comes to International Offices.
- To intervene in difficulties involving the officials of the church.
- To estop any general official of the church for any misconduct whatsoever.
- To pass upon the budgets and fiscal affairs of all departments.
- To pass on pensions for retired ministers and assistance to the needy.
- To pass on the reinstatement of ministers whose licensure has been revoked.

The Council can and has acted upon all of these and other issues. In its function, it has faced such responsibilities as 1) an impeachment, 2) estopping in office, 3) censure, and 4) setting aside board actions that were demonstrated not to be in the best interest of the Church of God.

No member of the International Executive Council is to violate the responsibility of confidentiality regarding information disseminated in an International Executive Council meeting or in correspondence that has been designated as confidential by the General Overseer and International Executive Council. April 2012 International Executive Council Minutes.

The following items shall be deemed confidential:

1. All matters related to ministerial discipline and restoration.
2. All matters regarding personnel issues related to the operation of the International Offices.
3. The content of the debate and voting record of any member on any business brought before the International Executive Council.
4. Any and all matters deemed confidential by the General Overseer and/or the International Executive Council.

DUTIES AND AUTHORITIES

The present duties and authorities as listed in the Minutes are as follows:

1. This council shall consider and act upon any and all matters pertaining to the general interest and welfare of the Church of God. At a time set by the general overseer, the said council shall meet and adopt recommendations to be brought before the International General Council 56th A., 1976, p. 49, 1, 2.
2. All measures designed to change or alter any teaching of the Church of God, before being presented to the International General Council, shall first be submitted to the International Executive Council in writing prior to the meeting of the International General Council 45th A., 1954, p. 34 34; 49th A., 1962, p. 34 11.
3. All measures designed to change, alter, or delete any doctrine of the Church of God as prescribed in the Declaration of Faith, before being presented to the International General Assembly, shall be first submitted to the International Executive Council in writing twelve 12 months prior to the regular session of the International General Council, and must have a three-fourths majority vote to carry. The measure shall then be submitted to the International General Council for consideration, and if the International General Council approves the measure by a three-fourths vote, the International Executive Committee shall place the said measure in the Church of God Evangel quarterly for a study until the next regular session of the International General Assembly, thus giving the membership an opportunity to consider and vote on the said measure in the International General Assembly before it becomes a ruling 45th A., 1954, p. 34 34; 49th A., 1962, p. 34 11; 50th A., 1964, p. 50 5; p. 56 19.
4. The distribution of tithes sent to the International Offices of the church shall be in the hands of the general overseer and the International Executive Council 13th A., 1917, pp. 33, 40; 26th A., 1931, p. 104 2; 33rd A., 1938, p. 51 4; 39th A., 1944, p. 38 1; 42nd A., 1948, p. 29; 50th A., 1964, p. 50 5; p. 56 19.
5. Matters which concern difficulties or measures relating to one or more of the general officials shall be referred to the Council of Eighteen for decision (see S6. V. Discipline).
6. Its duty shall be to counsel with the general overseer in all matters pertaining to the general interest of the church. This body of men, or a majority of the same, shall have power to stop any general official of the Church of God for any misconduct, until proper procedures have been followed 64th A., 1992, p. 87.

7. The general overseer, with the International Executive Council, shall give one of his assistants the World Missions portfolio and assign his duties and authorities 52nd A., 1968, p. 34.
8. The International Executive Council shall meet every two years with the International Council to discuss and project international ministries Proverbs 11:14 59th A., 1982, p. 32.
9. Allotments for aged and disabled ministers shall be determined by the International Executive Council.
10. Ministers' credentials having been revoked for the cause of improper conduct with the opposite sex, shall not be restored to them until approved by a three-fourths majority vote of the International Executive Council 42nd A., 1948, p. 29; 65th A., 1994, Item 16, p. 91.
11. Permission to establish an institution of higher education, that is, a Bible college or a liberal arts college, shall be granted by the International Executive Council 56th A., 1976, p. 54.
12. The International Executive Council shall be authorized to establish a loan fund to provide interim financing for churches in new fields 53rd A., 1970, p. 58, 19B.
13. The International Executive Council is authorized to initiate a radio and television program in the interest of the Church of God 46th A., 1956, p. 30.
14. Because both public and private schools are adjusting their schedules to begin the first week of August in most states, consideration should be made to holding the General Assembly no later than the last week of July. This would help parents of school-age children, ministers' wives who teach school, as well as Teen Talent participants to not miss the first days of school 70th A., 2004 p. 57.
15. The International Executive Council is authorized to reorganize, amplify, and clarify as necessary all information in the International General Assembly Minutes pertaining to property ownership and the various boards of trustees. It is understood that no changes will be made in the intent of the measures, only rearrangement and updating. Further, the International Executive Council shall make this material in its reorganized form available to every pastor and ordained bishop as soon as possible following the International General Assembly 65th A., 1994, Item 8, p. 89.
16. Whereas the Church of God is an international church serving in many nations, societies and cultures; and words may not always convey the same meaning nor the same level of social and cultural appropriateness in these various settings,
Therefore, the International Executive Council is authorized to reword information in the International General Assembly Minutes to clarify its meaning and protect its social and cultural appropriateness. It is understood that no changes will be made in the intent or essence of the measures.
Further, the International Executive Council is authorized to commission the preparation of an international version of the International General Assembly Minutes that takes into consideration the differences in laws and customs between the United States of America and other countries 67th A., 1998, pp. 52, 53.
17. The initial structure of a U.S.A. National Council/Assembly shall be the same as the International General Council/Assembly, and the International Executive Council shall schedule time for business unique to the United States of America to be handled during the week of the International General Assembly. 71st A., 2006, pp. 46,47.
18. All business before the International Executive Council between assemblies concluded and decided be made available to all credentialed ministers through the ministerial reporting website. Any disciplinary actions will not be included.

75th A.,2014, p. 72, S5

INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

NAME

2000 International General Assembly

“That we amend p. 126 S3. General Council, V. Bylaws, Article I, by inserting the word ‘International’ before the words ‘Executive Council.’”

SELECTION

2002 International General Assembly

The International Executive Council is comprised of the International Executive Committee and eighteen (18) elected members. Not less than nine (9) members shall be pastors at the time of their election. Further, two (2) members of the Council of Eighteen shall be at the time of their election, foreign nationals residing and ministering outside the U.S.A. No member of the International Executive Committee who has just completed his tenure of office shall be eligible to serve on the International Executive Council for the ensuing International General Assembly term.

PROCEDURE FOR FILLING VACANCIES

2006 International General Assembly

Should any one of the 18 positions on the Council of Eighteen be vacated because of death, disability, advancement, resignation or the member in any wise being disqualified, the General Overseer shall submit to the International Executive Council in session the names of the next two men receiving the highest votes on previous ballots who are eligible at the time of this special election and whose election would retain the required minimum numbers of pastors and/or foreign nationals as required by the International General Assembly Minutes. The one receiving the majority vote of the International Executive Council shall be declared elected to fill the unexpired term. If more than one half of the vacated term remains, the member elected to fill that term will be eligible to succeed himself for only one additional term. If a vacancy occurs after April 1 of a General Assembly year, that vacancy will not be filled.

STANDING BOARD MEMBERSHIP

2004 International General Assembly

When an individual is appointed as an Administrative Bishop [state overseer] and then elected to the Council of Eighteen, he is not eligible for appointment to serve on a standing board.

ORDER AND DECORUM

The Council follows specific rules of order that have developed through its history. The general overseer is the sole chairman of the combined International Executive Committee and Council of Eighteen, which joint session constitutes the International Executive Council. Under emergency conditions, three members of the Council can, by petition, call a meeting of the ministry.

The Council, being a small deliberative body, functions in a relaxed and collegial atmosphere. Parliamentary procedures are not rigidly followed so long as a "gentlemen's agreement" is more productive and harmonious. Upon any member's call to order, the Council instantly becomes rigid in its business.

Attendance at all meetings of every session is required of all members. This has been historically observed, except in cases of illness and emergency. Even then, the member is expected to be present when possible.

The same attention to schedule has been an historic practice of the Council. Throughout its history, the Council has endeavored to adhere precisely to the printed schedule.

Decorum in dress has always been observed by the Council. Due to the nature of its work, only attire that is appropriate at General Assemblies or in clerical functions has been regarded as appropriate for the Council in session. Lounging and casual dress is disallowed. The Council functions between the International General Assemblies, and the members are expected to be conscious of that fact in all deportment and attitudes.

APPROVAL OF INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MINUTES

The minutes of each session of the International Executive Council are processed and approved by the General Overseer and Secretary General on behalf of the Council. A copy of the minutes from each session is mailed to all members.

THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL

2000 International General Assembly

PURPOSE

To give greater involvement in order to support continued development of an international perspective in fulfilling the mission of the Church of God, and to ensure the sponsorship of ministries that meet the needs of persons of different cultural settings, the church must embrace a posture that includes both participation and representation in its general functions (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:15; Acts 15:1-21). This posture should include specialized training programs and materials, opportunities for leadership experience, and open channels for new ideas. FACTS ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Instituted in November, 1916

“Moved that a body of elders be selected, whose duty it shall be to have jurisdiction over all questions of every nature that may properly come before them, their actions and decisions to be ratified by the Assembly in session. This body of elders to be composed of not less than twelve members and never more than seventy.”--Book of Minutes 12th, 1916 p.242

Selection of Councilors

The selection of the first Council was a long, drawn-out procedure that required more than two weeks February 13-March 1, 1917 for completion. The general overseer and the councilors themselves joined in the selective process.

First Meeting of the Council October 4-17, 1917

The First Councilors: General Overseer A.J. Tomlinson, plus the Council of Twelve: F.J. Lee, T.L. McLain, T.S. Payne, M.S. Lemons, J.B. Ellis, Sam C. Perry, M.S. Haynes, George T. Brouayer, S.W. Latimer, E.J. Boehmer, S.O. Gillaspie, and J.S. Llewellyn.

The Council's Many Names

- | | |
|----------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Elders Council | 4. Council of Twelve |
| 2. Supreme Council | 5. Council of Eighteen |
| 3. Executive Council | 6. International Executive Council |

Methods of Selection

The first Council was appointed; thereafter, through 1929, the Councilors and members of the Executive Committee except the general overseer, who was selected for life in 1914 were nominated by an early form of the General Council and elected by the General Assembly. Since 1930, the Council of Twelve or Council of Eighteen has been elected by the General Council. Serving with the Executive Committee, it was called the Supreme Council until 1964, when the name Executive Council was adopted. The name “International Executive Council” was adopted by the 2000 Assembly.

For six years, 1926-1932, the Council of Twelve served with the general overseer as the Executive Committee, or State Overseer Appointing Board.

Until 1986, there was no change in the number on the Council of Twelve, but the size of the joint Supreme/Executive Council changed frequently because the Executive Committee has varied from 3 to 7 members.

In 1986, the Council of Twelve was expanded to eighteen members, as the Council of Eighteen.

Fathers and Sons

Eight fathers and ten sons have served on the Council:
M.S. Lemons -- Frank W. Lemons; David L. Lemons
J.B. Ellis -- E.M. Ellis
E.W. Williams -- Ralph E. Williams
Paul H. Walker -- Paul L. Walker; Donald M. Walker
J.H. Hughes -- Ray H. Hughes
J. Frank Culpepper -- Raymond F. Culpepper
Floyd J. Timmerman -- Larry J. Timmerman
Paul L. Walker -- Mark L. Walker

Vacancies

As with the methods of selection, vacancies on the Council have come in various ways. The most common has been through fortunes of the election process. Some have withdrawn from election after they were nominated, but these personal withdrawals created no vacancy. In 1988, J. Herbert Walker, Jr. was elected to the Council but resigned while still at the Assembly in order to accept the presidency of the School of Theology, and another nominee was chosen.

1. Two members of the Council George T. Brouayer and S.O. Gillaspie were dismissed with A.J. Tomlinson when he was impeached in 1923.
2. Eight members of the International Executive Council have died in office:

|--------------------|-------------------------|
| F.J. Lee 1928 | R. Leonard Carroll 1972 |
| Tom W. Godwin 1953 | J. Frank Culpepper 1984 |
| E.M. Ellis 1957 | James A. Cross 1990 |
| A.M. Phillips 1962 | W.A. Davis 2003 |
3. In 1989, Cecil B. Knight, Assistant General Overseer, resigned from the International Executive Committee and International Executive Council in order to become President of the School of Theology, an office recently vacated by the death of President J. Herbert Walker, Jr.
4. Larry McDaniel's credentials were revoked on August 4, 1993 and therefore he did not complete the term.
5. Robert White, General Overseer, was estopped by the International Executive Council on July 17, 1996. The International Executive Committee functioned with four members until the International General Assembly.
6. In 1998 Danny May surrendered his credentials and did not fulfill the remainder of the 1996-98 term.
7. In 1999 the credentials of Joe Jackson were revoked which created a vacancy on the Council.
8. General Overseer Carroll and Assistant General Overseer Knight were replaced on the Council, but that was because of their positions on the International Executive Committee. At that time, no procedure had been devised for the replacement of a member of the Council of Eighteen.

INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATION

South Africa

Since 1951, the Moderator of the Full Gospel Church of God, South Africa, has been a member of the International Executive Council:

During the January 2007 session of the International Executive Council, the Moderator of the Full Gospel Church of God, South Africa, requested that he attend only the September session each year. This request was approved.

This was affirmed and was referred to the International Executive Committee “to determine the method and means to accomplish this and to extend the invitation.”

The International Executive Committee, in session March 18, 1999, approved:

That [the National Overseer of Indonesia] would attend the September session of the International Executive Council each year.

Since September 1999, the National Overseer of Indonesia has been invited to attend each September session of the International Executive Council. Members from Indonesia who have attended are:
